

P15 Undecided/Exploratory Student Advising: Creating an action plan for your campus

Are you satisfied with the variety and depth of services currently offered to your undecided population? If you are looking for a major overhaul or would like to expand your programming, this workshop is for you! The purpose of this session is to discuss issues and challenges facing advisors working with the undecided population in the context of current literature and develop ways to improve services on your campus. As student persistence to graduation and retention are so vital in higher education, especially given the current financial situation, this session can provide an opportunity to find more effective ways of working with your undecided students. We will showcase exemplary services and reignite your passion for serving the undecided student! The session will conclude with the development of your personal action plan where you can take these great ideas and impact students on your campus!
