

Technology to the Rescue:
Advising during a budget crisis

NACADA North Carolina Virtual Drive In

Host: East Carolina University

Conference Dates: Thursday, November 19th and Friday, November 20, 2009

Co Chairs: Elizabeth Coghill and Steven Asby

How does a virtual conference work?

- Registration Allows Access: After registering as an institution, unlimited professionals can join the home base website a few days before the conference date. This allows for you to review upcoming materials, programs, and connect with colleagues around the state.
- Two Days of Presentations! Log on to a “home base” that allows connections to programs between 9am and 4pm on Thursday, November 19th and live presentations between 10am and 12:30pm on Friday, November 20, 2009.
- How You Participate: During live global classroom presentations and live chats, participants can email questions to the speaker presenting from the ECU campus.
- Technology Needs: All you need to participate in the ECU Drive-In Conference is a computer, Internet access, speakers and a projector (if you are viewing as a group).
