

Rebecca Ryan is the Associate Director with the Cross-College Advising Service and Coordinator of the Exploration Center for Majors and Careers at the University of Wisconsin-Madison. She has worked at the University of Wisconsin-Madison since July 1994. She received her M.S. degree in Guidance and Counseling with an emphasis in Higher Education and Career Counseling in 1993.

Cross-College Advising Service (CCAS) supports the undecided and exploring population on the UW-Madison campus, and in this capacity, serves the entire University as a premiere Academic Advising resource on campus. She has served in numerous leadership roles in advising, including the NACADA Representative for Region 5 (2003-2005), President for the Wisconsin Academic Advising Association (WACADA), and for 2 terms as the Wisconsin State Liaison for the NACADA. She currently serves on the NACADA Professional Development Committee and the Awards committee. On campus, she serves as an ambassador of CCAS and advising resources, and has provided advising support and training to other advisors, housing staff, student organizations, campus tour guides, and campus administrators. She has just finished a term as President of the Madison Academic Staff Association and is a member of the University Bookstore board of trustees. She frequently presents in the area of advisor training and development.

Becky enjoys living in Madison Wisconsin and loves spending time with her husband and 2 sons, John and Sam.
