

Conferences

NACADA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Annual conferences:

- offer a broad range of presentations
  - theoretical
  - practical
  - interactive
- focus on critical academic advising issues
- have a variety of session formats
  - preconference workshops
  - concurrent & poster presentations
  - round table discussions
  - exhibits

REGIONAL CONFERENCES

Opportunity for:

- networking
- discussion of issues
- involvement in the association

Advisors gather new ideas & explore advising issues with colleagues who have experienced & solved similar challenges.

STATE CONFERENCES

Although varied in size & scope, state meetings give participants an opportunity for quality, focused professional development experiences that require minimal time away from campus.

Institutes

ADMINISTRATORS' INSTITUTE

Designed to help administrators develop:

- a clearer focus for advising programs
- effective administrative techniques
- advising programs that best fit their institutions & students

ASSESSMENT INSTITUTE

Participants:

- develop a comprehensive process for assessment of academic advising across their institutions
- gain valuable information & assistance for the creation of academic advising
- delineate mission & value statements; goals
- determine student learning outcomes
- design a plan to assess the delivery of advisement
- construct outcomes achievement measures

SUMMER INSTITUTE

Student growth, persistence & campus vitality are all linked to quality academic advising. Summer Institute participants:

- learn from the foremost experts in the field
- participate in action-oriented small group discussions
- explore practical alternatives to campus advising issues
- develop action plans for their campuses
- facilitate meaningful changes that benefit students

Additional Opportunities

WEBINAR SERIES

Live Webinar broadcasts are presented by leaders actively involved in academic advising on their campuses! Each Webinar presents an opportunity for you to:

- learn why academic advising is important to your campus
- share the significance of effective academic advising in student persistence & retention
- save time & travel expenses
- encourage many staff members to attend each Webinar
- schedule training when timely for you or your campus

CONSULTANTS & SPEAKERS SERVICE

Provides assistance to . . .

- establish
- develop
- review
- reorganize . . . advising services

The Service offers quality assistance at a reasonable cost. Services are provided by a network of professionals including:

- evaluative consultants
- keynote speakers
- workshop leaders