NATIONAL ACADEMIC ADVISING ASSOCIATION LEADERSHIP RECOMMENDATION

NACADA conducts an election each spring for various leadership positions. Please complete the form below if you are interested in being considered for a position. Also, if you know someone you believe would be a good candidate, you may submit his or her name on this form, and the NACADA Executive Office will follow up to determine if he or she is interested and meets the eligibility criteria. Position descriptions and eligibility requirements are on the back of this form.

All nominees will be required to complete a personal biography form detailing past NACADA involvement, specific accomplishments, and other relevant activities in support of advising. Based on nominations and information submitted, the NACADA Board of Directors and Executive Office may solicit additional nominees to assure at least two (2) candidates for each position. The final slate of candidates will be available in late fall 2005 and the election will be conducted in February-March 2006. Newly elected leaders take office in October 2006 after the national conference. Nominations are due no later than October 31, 2005 to the NACADA Executive Office.

Position Descriptions

NOTE. Prior experience means “has completed a full term prior to taking office.” All candidates must be current General Members of NACADA. Please note that Associate Members (employed outside of nonprofit higher education institutions) are not eligible for elected positions of leadership within the Association.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Board members are elected by the general membership and serve to direct the association through development and implementation of the strategic plan and the management of association resources. Board members must have prior experience as a Chair of a Division level sub-unit (region, committee, commission). Board members serve staggered three-year terms. Obligations include attendance at the Fall Board Meeting and participation in other Board meetings as called by the President.

DIVISION REPRESENTATIVES

Elected Division Representatives direct and lead the sub-units of their Division, and are elected by the Chairs whom they will represent within the Division. They are supported by an additional Division Rep who is appointed by the President, and serves an alternate 2-year term (overlapping vs. concurrent). All Division Reps serve on the NACADA Council. Division Reps must have prior experience as a Chair of a sub-unit within the respective Division. Division Reps attend the meetings of the Division and the Council scheduled around the NACADA Annual National Conference and by teleconferences. The Regional Division Rep must have previously served a full term as a Region Chair. The Administrative Division Rep must have previously served a full term as a Committee Chair. The Commission & Interest Group Division Rep must have previously served a full term as a Commission Chair.

REGION CHAIRS

Region Chairs are elected by their regional members and represent members of their specific region by bringing concerns of the region to the Division, informing the region of initiatives of the Association, facilitating communication within the region, and coordinating regional activities. Region Chairs attend Division meetings scheduled with the NACADA Annual National Conference and lead regional meetings during regional conferences and during the national conference. Region Chairs must be members of their region for at least one year prior to taking office.

COMMISSION CHAIRS

Commission Chairs are elected by their Commission members and provide leadership for Commission activities in support of the profession by representing the members of that group and their needs and concerns through the Division Reps and communicating with the members through the national newsletter. Commission Chairs coordinate commission activities and lead Commission meetings during the National Conference. Candidates must have completed the previous year as a member in the Commission and be a current member in that group.

Ethical/Legal Issues in Advising Seminar

February 2–3, 2006

The Seminar will provide participants with a foundation for the ethical frameworks that drive decision making for advisors and understand the legal implications of these decisions.

- FERPA Then and Now
- Accountability and Accuracy in Advising
- Process and Fairness in Advisor Decisions

Topics:

- Confidentiality and Trust in the Student/Advisor Relationship
- Student Responsibilities and Advisor Obligations
- Flashpoints of Discrimination: Race, Gender, and Disability

4th Annual Academic Advising Administrators' Institute

February 5–7, 2006

What is your most pressing advising administration issue? The nation's leading advising experts will help you craft a workable action plan for your institution. You will also receive feedback and advice from others in your group.

Topics:

- Assessment of Advising
- Budget Management/Financial Planning
- Campus Connections/Campus Politics
- Components of Successful Advising Programs
- Assessment, Evaluation, and Reward
- Leadership vs. Management
- Legal and Ethical Issues
- Planning Mission Statements, Goals, and Objectives
- Successful Planning Strategies
- Technology in Advising
- Training and Professional Development
- Utilization of CAS Standards and CORE Values

Our charge was to develop a university-wide advising plan. The faculty of the NACADA Institutes went out of their way to assist us with our charge. It is a rare occurrence to be able to pick the brains of so many of the nation's leading experts in academic advising. I highly recommend the Institute for institutions who want to make significant improvement in their academic advising program.

Janet Spence, Director, University-Wide Advising Practice, University of Louisville

2nd Annual Assessment of Academic Advising Institute

February 8–10, 2006

Assessment of academic advising is essential for a successful and effective academic advising program on any campus. This intensive institute focuses on the components of a successful assessment program as well as provides specific strategies and tools for the development and implementation of assessment programs on your campus.

Topics:

- Planning for Assessment
- Definitions and Types of Assessment
- Advisor Assessment/Evaluation
- Advising Program Assessment/Evaluation
- Assessment Tools
- Strategies/Techniques of Assessment
- Self-Assessment Using the CAS Standards
- Use of Assessment for Program Improvement
- Developing & Assessing Student Learning Outcomes

I never realized how truly related value statements, mission statements, and assessment plans are to each other. I now have a much clearer understanding of the need to start with the big picture first (value and mission statement) before I can attempt to assess my program and services. Moving away from student satisfaction surveys and moving towards learning outcomes is the way to go!

Casey Self, Executive Director, Arizona State University
