| 1. Advance the body of knowledge of academic advising student-athletes | 1 Conduct a webinar to reach advisors to obtain information | 1a. Coordinate with select members of the ASAC and NCAA advisory board to determine the information to present in a webinar that will while advancing the body of knowledge regarding NCAA rules and regulations affecting student-athlete advising | 1. Webinar created and implemented by either commission or NCAA advisory board | Failed to do | Work with incoming chair to get steering committee active and involved. Recommend finding one- two people (perhaps from NCAA advisory board) who can help organize this to make it happen. Coordinate with NCAA Advisory Board to determine the best topic. |
| 2. Ensure effectiveness of the NACADA organization | 2. Increase the number and quality of proposals submitted for the annual conference | 2a. Solicit volunteers to submit proposals 2b. Assist those who may be uncertain about proposal writing or topics to share at the conference | 2. Increase in the quality and number of proposals for the national conference. | Proposal numbers increased slightly; however, it is yet to be determined if the quality is better. We did have an increase in the number of readers for the proposals. | Reach out to the commission to promote opportunities to present at the conference. Encourage collaboration with other commissions or interest groups to co-present. |
