NACADA Information for Paying by International Wire Transfer

·International attendees who cannot use a credit card, check or international money order may pay NACADA by international bank wire transfer. Please note: NACADA assesses a $15 handling fee for each international wire transfer.

·All bank charges and wire transfer fees must be fully paid by the participant. Please check with your bank to ensure that all wire transfer fees are included in your payment before submitting. The net amount received must be equal to the total conference registration fees plus the handling fee due to NACADA.

·To initiate a Wire Transfer, you must first complete and submit the 2016 NACADA International Registration form for each registrant noting “International Wire” in the payment section. Once received, we will contact you with a reference number and instructions for completing the Wire Transfer.
