Provide professional development opportunities that are responsive to the needs of advisors and advising administrators	Commission members will participate in our virtual brownbag series by attending or presenting.	Hold at least four brownbag events in before the 2018 annual conference.	Count of brownbag events that occurred and number of participants at each event.	Will need help from EO and steering committee to set up zoom room and select brownbag presenter and dates.	When issues arise, I will reach out to EO, Steering Committee, and AC reps for guidance as needed.	We held the following brownbag events: The Problem of Dualism in Academic Advising - A Deweyan Critique by Kurt Xyst Medieval Foundations of a 21st Century Profession:	This had been a successful program. Between 30 and 40 NACADA members have logged in for each of our events. We will likely continue these talks in the future.

Develop and sustain effective Association leadership	Create one page document about TPH as requested by ACD at the 2017 Annual Conference	Steering Committee input and EO guidance while producing the document	Document is completed for 2018 Annual Conference	TPH Steering Committee, AC Division reps	When issues arise, I will reach out to EO, Steering Committee, and AC reps for guidance as needed.	Nathan Ragutt created a qualtrics survey to gather information from our membership. This survey informed the THPAC Topical Sheet as requested by ACD.
Expand and communicate the scholarship of academic advising	Determine potential platforms for allowing people who are doing research or planning to do research in the theory, philosophy, and history of advising to communicate with one another	Communicate with EO, ACD Reps, and relevant other AC Chairs (e.g. Technology) to determine potential platforms for improved communication.	Platforms are recommended to ACD Reps and EO	EO, AC Reps, Steering Committee, other AC chairs as recommended by ACD	This goal is beyond the scope of TPH, but we are happy to provide leadership in this space. We will need strong collaboration with EO, AC Reps, and other chairs to make this happen.	Toward this goal, we have been working toward developing a bibliography of work on the history of advising. We have been in communication with EO to decide on a platform, but have not come to any decisions yet.	I would like to discuss this at the leadership meetings at Annual in Phoenix.
