

Tentative Hasselt City Tours – NACADA

Participants will select one city tour on the 9th that they would like participate in. The tour is included in the registration fee.

On the 10th, participants can choose a second city tour to participate in, or they can choose to have free time during the scheduled tours.

The web site for choosing the tours will open in March and will be sent to all who have registered. First come, first serve.

9 July, 2019, 11:30 to 13:15

Fashion Walk

Discover the rich history of textiles in the city during this walk, parade through the Golden Alley (Gouden Straatje) with a guide, make the connection between the historic fashion story of avant-garde boutiques and the contemporary Limburg designers and find out why today's most popular clothing chain store is located at the Molenpoortplein.

Jenever Museum

In the mid-19th century, there were dozens of jenever distilleries in Hasselt. Today, Hasselt is still the Jenever city par excellence. How do you serve and store this delicious drink? Who invented it? Why is it called jenever? Includes one complimentary tasting.

Architectural Walk

A guide will walk you around the most prominent architectural corners of Hasselt.

Street Art

A fascinating walk with guide along facades full of graffiti and hidden gems of street art. During this colourful tour you will get to know Hasselt's impressive street art collection and discover the city in a unique and special way.

Japanese Symbolism and Culture

Hasselt is the home of the largest authentic Japanese garden in Europe. Cherry trees, koi fish, bridges, bonsai trees, winding paths ... enjoy the Japanese garden with a group guide.

Taste Route with Delicacies

A guide will take you to the most unique and tasty spots in Hasselt. Shops, but also cultural centres and culinary hotspots. This laid-back walk combines visits with local specialties such as “speculaas”, a shot of jenever, a praline, a beer from Herkenrode or coffee with a Hasselt macaron.

Historical City Excursion

A pleasant and educational walk will take you to the main historical sights of Hasselt. Discover the rich history of Hasselt.

Old Jail Guided Tour

Would you like to learn more about the building in which you are meeting? Join this tour to learn more about the Old Jail and its history.

10 July, 2019, 16:30 to 18:00

Same tours as offered on 9 July, 2019

Fashion Walk

Discover the rich history of textiles in the city during this walk, parade through the Golden Alley (Gouden Straatje) with a guide, make the connection between the historic fashion story of avant-garde boutiques and the contemporary Limburg designers and find out why today’s most popular clothing chain store is located at the Molenpoortplein.

Jenever Museum

In the mid-19th century, there were dozens of jenever distilleries in Hasselt. Today, Hasselt is still the Jenever city par excellence. How do you serve and store this delicious drink? Who invented it? Why is it called jenever? Includes one complimentary tasting.

Architectural Walk

A guide will walk you around the most prominent architectural corners of Hasselt.

Street Art

A fascinating walk with guide along facades full of graffiti and hidden gems of street art. During this colourful tour you will get to know Hasselt’s impressive street art collection and discover the city in a unique and special way.

Japanese Symbolism and Culture

Hasselt is the home of the largest authentic Japanese garden in Europe. Cherry trees, koi fish, bridges, bonsai trees, winding paths ... enjoy the Japanese garden with a group guide.

Taste Route with Delicacies

A guide will take you to the most unique and tasty spots in Hasselt. Shops, but also cultural centres and culinary hotspots. This laid-back walk combines visits with local specialties such as “speculaas”, a shot of jenever, a praline, a beer from Herkenrode or coffee with a Hasselt macaron.

Historical City Excursion

A pleasant and educational walk will take you to the main historical sights of Hasselt. Discover the rich history of Hasselt.

Old Jail Guided Tour

Would you like to learn more about the building in which you are meeting? Join this tour to learn more about the Old Jail and its history.