Abstract
This opening general session sets the stage for areas which will be explored in greater depth throughout the Institute. Topics include:

- A brief history of academic advising
- Learning-centered advising
- NACADA’s Concept of Academic Advising
- Advising and student success and retention
- The importance of advising—present and future trends

Bibliography

