

NACADA Graduate Student Annual Conference Scholarship

Selection and Eligibility Criteria:

1. The applicant must:
  - be a current NACADA student member at the time of scholarship application or be willing to join if receiving the scholarship. (Note: Student membership requires certification that the student is currently enrolled and is not fully employed in an advising position.) Please see the NACADA Student Membership Application Form.
  - demonstrate an interest in advising as a profession.
  - provide a description of goals to be accomplished through participation in the NACADA Annual Conference.
2. Previous Graduate Student Annual Conference scholarship recipients are not eligible.

Because NACADA believes that there is considerable strength in diversity, the selection committee strongly encourages applications from groups under-represented in the Association and its leadership.

Application Components:

1. Completed Application Form
2. Resume/Vita. Please limit entries to material that pertains directly to academic advising, presenting relevant information from the nominee's overall resume/vita.
3. Current area of study and career goals
4. Annual Conference Participation
  - List and describe the goals you hope to accomplish by attending the Annual Conference.
  - In what ways would you like to extend your involvement in NACADA?
  - Describe your interest in advising as a profession and your decision to pursue this career path
5. Letters of recommendation
  - A required component of the application materials submitted for this award is two letters of recommendation from your institution's officials, at least one of which must be an instructor in your field of study. These letters must be on institutional letterhead.
6. Reflection Statement
  - Scholarship winners will be required to submit a short reflection statement regarding his/her experience at the Annual Conference. This paper should not exceed one page in length and will be due within one month following the Annual Conference. The reflection statement may be posted to the NACADA website.
